SPECIAL PRESS RELEASE

The Greenville County Republican Party Congratulates Karol Nawrocki on His Victory as Poland's President-Elect

GREENVILLE, SC (June 2nd, 2025) – The Greenville County Republican Party (GCRP), a leading voice for the America FIRST movement in South Carolina, extends its heartfelt congratulations to Karol Nawrocki on his remarkable victory in the Polish presidential election on June 1st, 2025. With 50.89% of the vote, Nawrocki's razor-thin triumph over his opponent marks a historic moment for Poland and a powerful affirmation of conservative values and national sovereignty.

Karol Nawrocki, a historian and staunch defender of Poland's heritage and independence, has secured a five-year term as Poland's president, succeeding Andrzej Duda. His campaign, backed by President Duda's Law and Justice party (PiS), resonated with voters through its commitment to traditional values, Polish sovereignty, and resistance to globalist policies. Nawrocki's alignment with the principles championed by President Donald Trump, highlighted by their recent meeting at the White House, underscores his role as a leader in the global movement for national pride and self-determination.

"We are thrilled to celebrate Karol Nawrocki's extraordinary victory as Poland's new president," said GCRP Chairman Jeff Davis. "His dedication to preserving Poland's cultural identity and standing firm against external overreach mirrors the America FIRST values we champion here in South Carolina. This win is a testament to the strength of conservative leadership and the global resolve to prioritize national interests."

The GCRP commends Nawrocki for his inspiring campaign and looks forward to his leadership in strengthening Poland's sovereignty and fostering partnerships with like-minded nations. We also congratulate the Polish people for their record-breaking 71.63% voter turnout, demonstrating their commitment to shaping their nation's future.

As Nawrocki prepares to assume office on August 6th, 2025, the GCRP wishes him success in leading Poland with courage and conviction. We remain committed to supporting leaders worldwide who share our vision of freedom, patriotism, and sovereignty.
