PRESS RELEASE

2025: GREENVILLE REPUBLICAN PARTY'S YEAR OF VICTORIES

Greenville, SC – December 31, 2025 – As 2025 comes to a close, the Greenville County Republican Party (GCRP) proudly reflects on a year of unprecedented engagement, growth, and steadfast commitment to President Trump's MAGA America First principles. Guided by dedicated volunteers and executive leadership, the GCRP has solidified its position as the premier voice for conservative values in the Upstate and the epicenter of the America First movement in South Carolina—through impactful events, support for key leaders, and robust mobilization to advance the Republican agenda.

"This has been yet another extraordinary year for the GCRP," said Chairman Jeff Davis. "From celebrating President Trump's inauguration in DC to hosting a record-breaking convention with Steve Bannon as our keynote speaker, our members have demonstrated remarkable energy and dedication. We've strengthened our precincts, elected unified leadership, and stood resolutely behind conservative candidates and causes. We are deeply grateful to every volunteer who made this possible and are eager for even greater victories in the year ahead."

Key Highlights from 2025:

- Kicked off the year with the Upstate Inaugural Gala featuring Maureen Bannon, followed by members attending President Donald Trump's inauguration in Washington, D.C.
- Welcomed Rep. John McCravy as a guest speaker at the February meeting while firmly disregarding disruptive Democrat protests against President Trump.
- Conducted a highly successful precinct reorganization in March, made possible by the tireless work of volunteers who ensured a seamless and well-organized process.
- Hosted the inaugural "Taco and Politics" event with 98.9 WORD host Bill Frady.
- Issued a strong press release defending SC Treasurer Curtis Loftis against baseless attacks.
- Held a New Member Meet & Greet on April 1 at Butler Springs Park, attracting over 200 attendees.
- Actively advocated at the State House during the legislative session, championing strong conservative legislation and opposing detrimental proposals.
- Organized an outstanding biannual county convention in April, drawing over 1,300 attendees with keynote speaker Steve Bannon of WarRoom. The event featured appearances by SC Treasurer Curtis Loftis and U.S. Rep. Nancy Mace, video messages from Rep. William Timmons and Rep. Sheri Biggs, and a spotlight of GCRP's own Chairman Jeff Davis on Steve Bannon's WarRoom. Leadership for 2025–2027 was elected without opposition.
